B.5. If the Network Service Provider fails to perform in accordance with this Contract or fails to perform the minimum level of service required by this Contract, the Managing Entity will apply financial consequences as stated herein. The parties agree that the financial consequences provided for under Exhibit B constitute financial consequences under § 287.058(1)(h); and § 215.971(1)(c), F.S. The foregoing does not limit additional financial consequences, which may include but are not limited to refusing payment, withholding payment until deficiency is cured, tendering partial payments, applying payment adjustments for additional financial consequences to the extent that this Contract so provides, or termination pursuant to the terms of Section 6.2, and requisition of services from an alternate source. Any payment made in reliance on the Network Service Provider's evidence of performance, which evidence is subsequently determined to be erroneous, will be immediately due as an overpayment in accordance with Section 3.5, to the extent of such error.

B.6. Corrective Action for Performance Deficiencies

B.6.1. By execution of this Contract, the Network Service Provider hereby acknowledges and agrees that its performance under the Contract must meet the standards set forth above and will be bound by the conditions set forth in this Contract. If performance deficiencies are not resolved to the satisfaction of the Managing Entity within the prescribed time, and if no extenuating circumstances can be documented by the Network Service Provider to the Managing Entity's satisfaction, the Managing Entity may terminate the Contract. The Managing Entity has the exclusive authority to determine whether there are extenuating or mitigating circumstances.

B.6.2. In accordance with the provisions of § 402.73(1), F.S., and Rule 65-29.001, F.A.C., corrective action plans shall be required for noncompliance, nonperformance, or unacceptable performance under this Contract, and penalties shall be imposed for failure to comply with a Managing Entity's approved corrective action plan unless the Managing Entity determines that extenuating circumstances exist.
