

Coordinated Specialty Care (CSC) for Early Serious Mental Illness (ESMI) – First Episode Psychosis (FEP)

Requirement: The Office of Substance Abuse and Mental Health (SAMH) Contract

Frequency: Ongoing

Due Date: 8th of each month

Like many other chronic illnesses, the earlier symptoms of psychotic disorders are identified and treated, the better the outcome for the individuals' overall health status. Research conducted by the National Institute for Mental Health demonstrated that coordinated specialty care programs (CSC) designed to treat individuals' who have experienced a first episode psychosis (FEP) event can help prevent a full onset of symptoms that accompany psychotic disorders. The CSC for FEP treatment model provides high-intensity services for individuals in need.

The NAVIGATE program is a CSC for FEP model which provides the early and effective treatment to individuals after they experience their FEP. Program manuals for NAVIGATE can be located using the following link: <https://navigateconsultants.org/manuals.html>. Program audits will be based on fidelity to the design outlined in these manuals.

The focus of CSC for FEP is on helping individuals who are experiencing their first episode of psychosis, regardless of the duration of symptoms, who have received no or limited antipsychotic medication or who have recently received treatment for a first episode and are therefore early in the treatment of psychosis. CSC for FEP is intended for individuals whose acute psychotic symptoms have remitted or been stabilized, as well as those who continue to have severe symptoms related to their first episode.
